

NWC Statement of Financial Support

International Student Application

INTERCULTURAL PROGRAMS

The total estimated cost of attendance for the 2022-2023 academic year is $19,088. This includes tuition and fees for 15 credits per semester, housing on-campus in a standard single room, and on-campus meal plan. Students should also budget for travel, books, health insurance (mandatory), and personal expenses. This cost is an estimate for immigration purposes only and is not a tuition bill. Costs will vary per student and may change at any time.

Read This Section Carefully!

The United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) agency requires Northwest College to verify that international students receiving a Form I-20 have sufficient financial support to pay for their expenses while studying in the United States. The cost of attendance for the current academic year is stated above and more details can be found on the Northwest College website on the International Admissions page.

SPONSOR CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that I will be fully responsible for all the expenses of the student during his/her studies at Northwest College. The evidence of my resources in the form of an official bank letter or bank statement dated within 6 months of the program start date accompanies this statement. I understand that financial documents dated before March 15 (for fall start date) and July 30 (for spring start date) will not be accepted. Do NOT type on this form.
