

Samuel Kuntz: History Overview

My plan is to give a brief background of what the Trial of Anne Hutchinson was and what the class (American Women's History) was. I will also state my research question I wanted to answer.

Furthermore I plan to explain why a graphic novel is a great way to present a idea especially with good visuals. I will then show my presentation and when finished I will go over my sources that I used and why I chose them. I have used a primary source that is a transcription of the trial itself and a several secondary sources going over the early life and late life of Anne Hutchinson and why she was in the America's to start with. Overall, I will be able to keep my presentation under 10 minutes and should be able to give a good idea of the work that went into the presentation and why it is a great assignment for future students.
