

Bisexuality means a person who is sexually, romantically, or emotionally attracted to more than one gender. However, bisexuality is a complex concept that can mean different things to different people. I have enjoyed everything that comes with being bi. The flag, flannel, sweater weather, the hate we get from both the gays and straights, exposed ankles. Well, not everything. Even though being bi is super awesome, bisexual people still face a lot of discrimination, leading to the main misconception that “bisexual people don't exist, you are either gay or straight”. If we don't exist, then why are bisexuals the largest group in the LGBTQ community, at 4% of the US population, according to a Gallup research in 2022. That means 12.8 million people in the US are bisexual. 12.8 million, and I can't get even one date! Today we will go through the journey that every bisexual goes through: not knowing what bisexuality is, coming out and facing backlash, and finally acceptance
